

Philam Group receives award for excellent employee engagement

PHILAM GROUP, the country's premier life insurance company, solidifies its leadership in the insurance industry with another recognition — this time for exemplifying excellence in employee engagement. The ceremony awarded companies that met and excelled in four critical areas of talent management — high employee engagement, effective leadership, compelling employer brand and high performance culture. The Aon Global Best Employers Program awarded the Philam Group with a Special Recognition for Commitment to Engagement. Photo shows Philam Life officers receiving the Special Recognition for Commitment to Engagement at the recently concluded Aon Global Best Employers Program.