

Kathrina Dizon, Philam Life Fixed Income Portfolio Manager, receives the Top Investment House Award for Philam Life/ PAMI, as well as the awards for Most Astute Investor for Asian Local Currency and Asian G3 Bonds.

Philam Life awarded for Investment Management Singapore

Philam Life, the country's premier life insurance company, was again recognized by The Asset, an integrated multimedia company that serves leading corporate finance companies in Asia. The Asset has been conducting its benchmark review for the past 18 years, with Philam Life being recognized by the said organization for several years now. Following the criteria set by The Asset's Board of Editors and the Asset Benchmark Research Team, Philam Life and Philam Asset Management Inc. (PAMI) placed fourth among the Top Investment Houses for Asian Local Currency bonds. Meanwhile, Philam Life's Fixed Income Portfolio Manager,

Kathrina Dizon, won two awards for the Philippine market, ranking third Most Astute Investor for the Asian Local Currency Bond Benchmark Review and ranking fourth for the Asian G3 Bond Benchmark Review 2018. "We are honored to be recognized once again by our peers in the investment community through this award from The Asset," said Philam Life Chief Investment Officer Arleen Guevara. "At the end of the day, this is for our customers, whose trust we value as we continue fine-tuning our strategy to achieve optimal results. Through sound investments, we hope to be able to help them live healthier, longer and better lives."